ACCEPTANCE OF ASSIGNMENT

I/We by accepting this assignment understand that I/We are obligated to accept any charges or other debts owing pursuant to the tap in this assignment; and I/We also understand that all terms, conditions and obligations contained in the assignors Water Tap Agreement shall be binding on me/us. Further, I/We agree to pay all rates and charges as set by the District and to abide by all rules and regulations of the District as modified from time to time.

Further, in the event I/We desire to sell any of my/our irrigation water and separate it from my/our premises, I/We hereby agree to give the District the first option to purchase said irrigation water at the then market price, and to execute all necessary documents for the transfer of any such irrigation water.

It is understood and agreed that the above Water tap was purchased for use only in connection with the above described real property and that in the event such real property is subsequently conveyed or transferred to a new owner, such Water tap shall be deemed transferred with the sold real property whether such conveyance or transfer is the result of a voluntary or involuntary transfer, including judicial order or decree, public trustee's sale, sheriff's sale, treasurer's sale, or otherwise.

Subject to the rules, regulations and procedures of the Fort Collins Loveland Water District, the District may recognize such transfers of the real property as the owner of sold water tap without having first obtained an assignment of such water tap executed by the assignee herein. In no event may the assignee retain ownership of said tap upon his/her subsequent transfer of the property, whether voluntary or involuntary.
